

 Pamela THOMPSON

SHORT BIO

PAMELA - THOMPSON . COM

Pamela Thompson, BN, MSc. powerfully connects with and skillfully engages her audiences.

She is passionate about sharing her transformational stories, messages and actionable strategies on how to successfully navigate change, lead in uncertain times, and how to thrive in life and work.

In addition to being a certified life and business coach, Pamela brings to her speaking a diverse background as a nurse, university professor, professional facilitator, project manager and consultant in North America, Latin America, Europe, Asia and Africa. She has gleaned a number of valuable leadership lessons from more than 25 years of consulting and managing in a variety of organizations and cultures.

Pam is author of the #1 best selling book Learning to Dance with Life: A Guide for High Achieving Women based on her own journey, in-depth interviews and work with clients.

Pamela has created two successful management consulting businesses since the early 1990s, and is currently President of Creative Life Coaching Inc.